

Social Studies 10-1 Course Final Exam Study Guide

To What Extent Should We Embrace Globalization

Your exam will consist of 80-100 Multiple Choice Questions.
There will be several practice tests available to you on our site (in the Final Review section)

General Points of Study

- All terms and definitions listed at the beginning of each chapter.
- Well developed definition of globalization
- Case Studies, examples from text, class discussion of topics and issues to be used as evidence and support for your written responses.

Related Issue #1 *To what extent should globalization shape identity

- Forces of globalization: Trade, Transportation, Communication Technology, Media and how they shape and influence identity.
- Dimensions of Globalization: Economic, Political, Environmental, and Social dimensions and how they present issues for individuals identity.
- Communication Technology and it's influence on identity.
- How do individuals, governments and international organizations affirm their identity.

Related Issue #2 *To what extent should contemporary society respond to the legacies of historical globalization?

- Foundations of historical globalization and the affects on people: Imperialism, Mercantilism, Exploration and Exploitation, Grand Exchange, Industrialization, Need for Resources and new trade markets. (History and how people were influences and affected)
- Legacies of Historical Globalization: Ethno/Eurocentricism, migration, displacement, depopulation.
- Legacies of historical globalization affecting Canada: Assimilation, British/French relations, Multiculturalism, influence and change for indigenous peoples.
- Effectiveness of government, organizations, and individuals in responding to legacies of historical globalization: NGO, United Nations . . . . .

Related Issue #3 To what extent does globalization contribute to sustainable prosperity for all people?

- Economic Globalization and how historical events shaped the economies of the global world today: WWI, Great Depression, WWII, United Nations, IMF, WTO.....
- Contemporary factors of expanding globalization: Communication Technologies, Trade, Transportation, Media.
- Principles for Sustainable Communities, Indicators of prosperity.
- Trade Liberalization and International Agreements contributing to expanding globalization: NAFTA, EU. . . . .
- Transnational Corporations and expanding globalization.
- Expanding globalization and sustainability: ecological footprints and their costs.
- Political and economic challenges and opportunities to sustainability and globalization: Fuels of economic growth, Climate change, Rehabilitation, Relief, Responsibility for maintained sustainability.

Related Issue #4 To what extent should I, as a citizen, respond to Globalization?

- Global citizenship and the responsibilities that comes with it.
- Globalization affecting communities, and people. Environment, Health.

If you have any questions while preparing for this exam, write them down and be sure to communicate them to me before Friday July 22.